

HAVERFORD'S CREW AT SOCCER. Officers and sailors of the Haverford Line steamship took an afternoon off yesterday to play at Starr Garden Recreation Center. One of the players is doing some head work. Ledger Photo Service.

PLEDGES AID TO SUFFRAGE LEADER. Mrs. Harding's first day in Washington was a busy one, but she found time to meet Mrs. Lawrence Lewis, of Philadelphia (right), of the National Woman's party. Harris & Ewing.

TO SING IN "EL CAPITAN." Miss Thelma T. Melrose will appear as Estrella in the Philadelphia Operatic Society's production, next week.

AT A BARCELONA FUNERAL. A Spanish disturbance was provoked during the burial of Senor Layret, lawyer for the "one big union," said to have been shot by a member of the "Free Union." The civic guards can be seen, on horseback, as they charge the unionists. Wide World Photo.

"LEFTY" FLYNN IN THE MOVIES. Maurice B. Flynn, Yale's great halfback of a few years ago, is shown, with his wife and daughter, at Los Angeles, where he is working with a film company. International.

MRS. M. MYRON NICHOLSON. queen of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, at a public installation. Ledger Photo Service.

KINDERGARTEN BAND. These tots are part of a twenty-four-piece band of the Gorgas School, Kensington, which is being instructed by Miss Frances Quintin. From left to right the musicians are Joseph Oskola, Anna Benzing, Dorothy Wible, Regina Gunn and Ann Eager. Ledger Photo Service.

"DOUG" FAIRBANKS as a "strong man." The camera clicked as he lifted Jack Dempsey, the fight champion. Wide World Photo.

AT THE NINETEENTH HOLE. President-elect Harding (left) and United States Senator Frelinghuysen on the links at St. Augustine. United States Photo.

ON ONE JOB FOR THIRTY-SIX YEARS. Winfield Giles is the locktender at the Klat Rock dam, in the Schuylkill. He has not slept in a bed for thirty years. At the left he is shown in the chair where he takes many of his "cat naps." At the right he appears at the lock handle. Ledger Photo Service.

HESS-BRIGHT EMPLOYEES JUDGE LIM'RICKS. These workmen in the Hess-Bright Manufacturing Company's big plant at Front street and Erie avenue, where ball bearings are made, selected the winning lim'rick that is announced today. In the picture, from left to right, are James Jobe, R. Youngman, Philip Hahn, John W. Plews, Albert A. Kraemer, P. Weston, I. Good, Joseph Thur, H. M. Schmid and Thomas L. Hood. Ledger Photo Service.

FRANK B. RUTHERFORD, of the Pennsylvania S. P. C. A., talks on cruelty to animals in an interview on the editorial page.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

OPERATING A BENDING MACHINE. John Spencer, of 2110 Monmouth street, bending heavy wire and other materials at the Frankford Machine Co., 4099 Frankford avenue. Ledger Photo Service.

CAPTAIN OF THE QUINTET. Louis Weinberger is the star forward of the Drexel Institute basketball team as he plays center. Ledger Photo Service.

HE'S SCORING HELPS A LOT. Louis Weinberger is the star forward of the Drexel Institute basketball team as he plays center. Ledger Photo Service.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

BUSY WITH THE WHISTLE. Reserve Patrolman Thomas Thompson has been stationed at Twelfth and Market streets for one of his nine years in the police department. He is thirty-one years old, is married and lives at 1636 East Hewson street. Ledger Photo Service.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY BY HIKING. Samuel E. Gavin walked sixty-nine miles yesterday, his sixty-ninth anniversary. Ledger Photo Service.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS KATHARINE DE MAYO 1122 Latona street Philadelphia